Presents

The Paris Piano Trio

4:00 p.m., Sunday, November 6, 2005

Moody Music Building, The University of Alabama

"The Trio proved that it is certainly the best in France."
-Nouvelle Republique

These three great French musicians (Régis Pasquier, violin; Roland Pidoux, cello; Jean-Claude Pennerier, piano) have been connected by their love of chamber music since they were prize-winning students together at the Paris Conservatory. All are now professors at the Conservatory, and each enjoys a solo career of almost legendary proportions. As a trio they express simultaneously their musical individuality and their total musical rapport. The group has won acclaim throughout Europe and North America. Their recordings of works by Tchaikovsky, Shostakovich, Brahms, Schubert, and Chausson are familiar to listeners worldwide. For their Tuscaloosa concert, the Trio will perform Faure's Trio in D minor, Op. 120; Ravel's Trio in A minor; and Chausson's Trio in G minor, Op.3.

The Spring Concert

The American String Quartet: 4:00 p.m., Sunday, March 19, 2006; Moody Music Building, Univ. of AL

The American String Quartet has been captivating the public with inspired performances since 1974, when it created a sensation by winning both the Coleman Competition and the Naumburg Award as well as becoming Resident Quartet at the Aspen Festival, all within a year of its creation. Over the past 30 years, its reputation has grown both nationally and internationally.

The String Quartet Society of Tuscaloosa (SQST)

A non-profit organization of volunteers, the SQST has both a cultural and an educational mission. We seek to enrich the lives of people in the Tuscaloosa area by (a) providing two formal concerts each year by outstanding professional ensembles, and (b) collaborating with other groups in the area to support the new Strings in the Schools program.
